Communication by the Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly to the 1408th meeting of the Ministers' Deputies¹ (30 June 2021)

¹ This document covers past activities of the Assembly since the meeting of the Bureau on 18 June 2021 (videoconference) and future activities up to the beginning of the September part-session, on Monday 27 September 2021.

I. 3rd part-session of 2021 (21-24 June 2021)

1. The June 2021 part-session was organised in a hybrid manner, with 201 members of the Assembly physically present in Strasbourg. Altogether, 264 members and delegation secretaries travelled to Strasbourg. To take this into account, the capacity of the Assembly Chamber has been increased, within the limits of the sanitary norms in force. In the light of the current epidemiological situation, the sanitary protocol put in place for the April 2021 part-session was maintained. In particular, antigenic tests on site for members and secretaries of delegation as well as PCR tests for delegations returning home were carried out. Altogether, 602 tests were performed and none of the persons travelling to Strasbourg for the part-session was tested positive. As during the previous part-session, the permanent representatives had the opportunity to follow the debates in the Chamber.

2. Statistics show a considerable increase in the physical participation of members as compared to the April 2021 part-session (101 members physically present in April, against 201 in June). This trend will be taken into account for the preparation of the September 2021 part-session of the Assembly, paying due regard to the evolution of the epidemiological situation.

3. On 21 June 2021, the Assembly elected Vice-Presidents in respect of Italy and the Netherlands.

A. Personalities

4. The following personalities addressed the Assembly (in chronological order):

- Mr Péter SZIJJÁRTÓ, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade of Hungary, Chair of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe
- Ms Marija PEJČINOVIĆ BURIĆ, Secretary General of the Council of Europe
- Mr António VITORINO, Director General, International Organization for Migration (by videoconference)
- Mr Notis MITARACHI, Minister of Migration and Asylum of Greece (by videoconference)
- Ms E. Tendayi ACHIUME, United Nations Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance (by videoconference)

Their speeches can be found on the Assembly's website: <http://assembly.coe.int>.

The event organised on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence (Istanbul Convention) was a major highlight of the part-session. High-level personalities intervened in the debate, in particular:

- Ms Marija PEJČINOVIĆ BURIĆ, Secretary General of the Council of Europe
- Mr Alexander De CROO, Prime Minister of Belgium (by videoconference)
- Ms Anca Dana DAGU, President of the Senate of Romania (by videoconference)
- Ms Elisabeth MORENO, Minister Delegate for Gender Equality, Diversity & Equal Opportunities, France
- Ms Dubravka ŠIMONOVIĆ, United Nations Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences (by videoconference)

The debate opened with a moving statement by Ms Nadia MURAD, Vaclav Havel Human Rights recipient, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate, victim of violence against women, currently leading advocate for survivors of genocide and sexual violence.

The speeches of the panellists, followed by an interactive exchange of views with the members of the Assembly, allowed to take stock of progress in the field of the prevention of violence against women and domestic violence, to highlight the real positive impact of the Istanbul Convention within the States which have ratified it, as well as to identify concrete measures that could be taken by parliamentarians, at national and international level, in order to promote the ratification of the Convention and its implementation through concrete tools. The General Rapporteur of the Assembly on violence against women, Ms Zita GURMAI, highlighted the way forward for the Assembly, including by launching the idea of setting up a network of Speakers and Presidents of Parliaments to support the Istanbul Convention.

B. Current affairs debate

5. The Assembly held two current affairs debates on The situation in Belarus: a threat to the whole of Europe and on The need for an effective solidarity mechanism between European countries to relieve migratory pressure on front line countries.

C. Election of judges to the European Court of Human Rights

6. On 22 June 2021, the Assembly elected Mr Davor Derenčinović as judge to the European Court of Human Rights in respect of Croatia.

D. Presidential Committee

7. The Presidential Committee of the Assembly met on 17 June (by videoconference) and 23 June 2021.

E. Prizes

8. On 22 June 2021, the Assembly held the ceremony of the 2021 Council of Europe Museum Prize, which was awarded to the Gulag History Museum (Moscow).

F. Media coverage

9. The June 2021 part-session of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (PACE) generated considerable media coverage, with some 40 journalists present in Strasbourg to report on it, and around 400 articles appearing in the international press. With almost half of the articles (170), Spain leads the list of media coverage, followed by Ukraine (70) and the Russian Federation (40).

10. Indeed, the focus of the media attention was the debate on 'Should politicians be prosecuted for statements made in the exercise of their mandate?' with articles published in the main Spanish (El País, El Mundo, La Vanguardia, ABC, La Razon) and international (Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, The Guardian, Le Figaro...) newspapers, as well as a large audiovisual coverage (TVE, Antena 3, Telecinco, TV3, La Sexta, Cuatro...).

11. The debate on 'The situation of Crimean Tatars' was also a highlight of the session with articles in the main Russian and Ukrainian media (Sputnik, Ria Novosti, TASS, Interfax Ukraine, Ukrinform, Ukrainian News ...), together with the debate on 'Covid passes or certificates: protection of fundamental rights and legal implications', as well as the communication by Péter Szijjártó, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade of Hungary, Chair of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe (Magyar Hírlap, Novyy region, Magyarhirlap, Zerkalo Nedeli...)

12. On Twitter, the session earned 530,000 impressions across the week, with the greatest spike for the event marking ten years of the Istanbul Convention. This event was streamed live on three platforms and was the subject of a two-hour live-tweet, generating considerable "buzz" and thousands of mentions of the #IstanbulConvention hashtag across all platforms. Other issues attracting attention on social media were the report on "Should politicians be prosecuted for statements made in the exercise of their mandate?" and the award of the 2021 Museum Prize to Moscow's Gulag History Museum.

13. The MediaBox, a web-TV studio available to all those making news at the Assembly in Strasbourg or virtually, once again proved its usefulness for both Assembly members and journalists, with 9 interviews with parliamentarians published in the PACE website and social media supports.

G. Adopted texts and follow-up to the second part-session of 2021 (Strasbourg, 21-24 June)

14. The Assembly adopted the following texts:
