29 June 2022

Communication by the Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly at the 1438th meeting of the Ministers' Deputies* (30 June 2022)

* This document covers past activities of the Assembly since the meeting of the Bureau on 20 June 2022 (Strasbourg) and future activities up to the meeting of the Bureau on 12 September 2022 (Paris).

I. Third part of the Ordinary Session of 2022 (20-24 June 2022)

A. Assembly's response to the Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine

The Parliamentary Assembly continued to keep the consequences of the aggression against Ukraine high on its agenda. On Wednesday, 22 June (afternoon), a joint debate focusing on the humanitarian consequences of the war, as well as on the role of women in conflict situations, was held. Three landmark texts were adopted:

- Humanitarian consequences and internal and external displacement in connection with the aggression of the Russian Federation against Ukraine

While commending the solidarity of member States in opening their borders to all those in need of protection, as well as the efforts of Ukraine in caring for some 9 million internally displaced persons, members of the Assembly stressed the importance to identify, at an early stage, those in vulnerable situations; to consider the situation of LGBTI people; as well as to put into place effective integration strategies aimed at, inter alia, facilitating Ukrainian citizens' access to the labour market and children's school integration.

- Protection and alternative care for unaccompanied and separated migrant and refugee children

The Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine has caused an increase in the number of unaccompanied and separate migrant and refugee children across Europe. The Resolution puts the emphasis on member States' positive obligation to protect private and family life, especially of unaccompanied and separated migrant and refugee children, as well as on the importance to always guarantee the best interest of children, irrespective of their migration status.

- Justice and security for women in peace reconciliation

Referring inter alia to today's situation in Ukraine, the Assembly recognised the role of women in building and safeguarding peaceful and democratic society and set out ways for women to be better protected in conflict situations, more involved in peace negotiations, and better represented in rebuilding and healing in post-conflict situations.

Moreover, the debate on Recent challenges to security in Europe: what role of the Council of Europe?, which was followed by the high level panel on "Upholding democratic security in Europe", addressed the challenges to peace and stability on the Continent and to the multilateral cooperation system arising from the Russian Federation's war of aggression against Ukraine. The high-level panel aimed specifically at identifying the role that the Council of Europe could play in upholding democratic security on the Continent in a new and rapidly evolving political context. The contribution of Ms Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya, Leader of Belarus opposition, who spoke for the first time in physical presence at a high-level Council of Europe event, was particularly important in this respect. Among other issues addressed, the role of civil society was in the focus of the discussion – including the mechanisms to engage with human rights defenders, civil society and political opposition from Belarus and the Russian Federation, who share the Council of Europe values and principles (see also section C below).

B. Follow-up to the 132nd Session of the Committee of Ministers (20 May 2022)

Discussions on a Fourth Summit of Heads of State and Government continued during the part-session, in particular in the framework of a Joint informal meeting between the Presidential Committee of the Assembly and the Bureau of the Ministers' Deputies, as well as at the level of the Bureau of the Assembly.

On Monday, 20 June, the Bureau held an exchange of views with the Secretary General of the Council of Europe, during which the work of the High-Level Reflection Group and the ways to ensure a substantial contribution by the Parliamentary Assembly to the overall reflection on the future of the Organisation and on holding a Fourth Summit, were considered.

As a result, on 24 June, the Bureau of the Assembly decided to set up an ad hoc Committee of the Bureau to contribute to the report on A fourth Summit for a renewed, improved and reinforced Council of Europe, being prepared by the Assembly's Committee on Political Affairs and Democracy. This ad hoc Committee will be in charge of interacting with the High-Level Reflection Group and to contribute to the preparation of the Fourth Summit, in particular as regards its agenda and possible deliverables. The ad hoc Committee is composed of the President of the Assembly, Presidents of the Assembly's Political Groups, the Chairpersons of General Committees, the Chairpersons of the parliamentary delegation of the countries holding the current and the immediate next presidency of the Committee of Ministers, namely Ireland and Iceland, as well as the rapporteur on the report on A fourth Summit for a renewed, improved and reinforced Council of Europe.

C. Personalities

The following personalities addressed the Assembly (in chronological order):

Mr Simon Coveney, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Minister for Defence of Ireland, Irish Presidency of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe

Ms Marija Pejčinović Burić, Secretary General of the Council of Europe

Ms Ute Steyer, Rabbi of the Great Synagogue of Stockholm

Her Excellency Ms Katerina Sakellariopoulou, President of the Hellenic Republic

His Majesty King Willem-Alexander of the Netherlands

The following personalities participated in the high-level panel "Upholding democratic security in Europe", which took place in the Assembly's Chamber on Tuesday, 21 June 2022:

Mr Simon Coveney, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Minister for Defence of Ireland, Irish Presidency of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe

Ms Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya, Leader of Belarus opposition

Mr Pekka Haavisto, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Finland

Ms Marija Pejčinović Burić, Secretary General of the Council of Europe

Their speeches can be found on the website of the Assembly: <http://assembly.coe.int>.

D. Current affairs debates

During its third part of the Ordinary Session of 2022, the Parliamentary Assembly held two current affairs debates on:

- Consequences of the blockade of the Black Sea;

- United Kingdom agreement on asylum seekers and the critical government reaction regarding the European Court of Human Rights.

E. Media coverage

The 2022 third part-session of the Parliamentary Assembly generated considerable media coverage, with 22 accredited journalists present in Strasbourg to report on it. Most of the coverage was generated in Ukraine, followed by Greece, Armenia and international news outlets.

Largely reflected by the press were the addresses by the President of the Hellenic Republic, H.E. Katerina Sakellariopoulou, His Majesty King Willem-Alexander of the Netherlands, and the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Minister for Defence of Ireland, President of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe, Mr Simon Coveney.

The debate on Recent challenges to security in Europe: what role for the Council of Europe?, and more particularly the high-level panel and interactive debate with the participation of the leader of the Belarus opposition, Ms Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya, triggered an important media echo on TV, as well as in print and on social media.

The report on the downing of Flight MH17 made headlines across the European Continent.

Other media highlights of the PACE session included debates on the consequences of Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine, the situation of political prisoners in Russia, the observation of the presidential and early parliamentary elections in Serbia, as well as the current affairs debate on the United Kingdom's agreement on asylum seekers and its reaction to the decision by the European Court of Human Rights.

In the margins of the part-session, ratification of the Istanbul Convention by the Ukrainian Parliament and the Council of Europe reactions, including by PACE President, made international headlines.

The Mediabox, run by PACE's Communication Division, saw a sharp increase in its work – with three times more interviews and statements recorded compared to the already-active April session.

As regards the Assembly's social media output, there were around 230,000 impressions on Twitter across the week, a reach of around 30,000 on Facebook, and around 2,700 total views on YouTube, amounting to around 200 hours of watch time. Top posts concerned reports touching on Russia – namely calls to release political prisoners and justice for MH17 victims.

F. Adopted texts

Further to debates, the Assembly adopted the following texts:

Bureau of the Assembly

Ad Hoc Committee of the Bureau on the 4th Summit of Heads of State and Government of the Council of Europe

The Bureau of the Assembly decides, subject to ratification by the Assembly through its Progress Report, under Article 44.4.c. of the Rules of Procedure, to set up an ad hoc Committee of the Bureau on the 4th Summit of Heads of State and Government of the Council of Europe, with the following terms of reference, composition and timetable.

1. Terms of reference

In Recommendation 2228(2022), the Assembly reiterated its support for the organisation of a 4th Summit of Heads of State and Government of Council of Europe to reaffirm the values of democracy, human rights and the rule of law and elaborate a new vision for the Organisation in the context of the European multilateral architecture, an idea launched in Resolution 2186 (2017) and Recommendation 2113 (2017) and further elaborated, inter alia, in Resolution 2277 (2019), Recommendation 2153(2019); Resolution 2369(2021) and Recommendation 2199(2021).

At the 132nd Session of the Committee of Ministers, held in Turin (Italy), on 20 May 2022, the Committee of Ministers “invited the Secretary General to set up a High-Level Reflection Group to consider Council of Europe’s responses to new realities and challenges and to start reporting to [the Ministers’ Deputies] at the earliest opportunity and no later than the handover meeting between the Irish and Icelandic Chairmanships” and decided “to consider the desirability of a 4th Summit of Heads of State and Government of the Council of Europe”.

Against this background, the Bureau decides to set up an ad hoc Committee to contribute to the report on “A fourth Summit for a renewed, improved and reinforced Council of Europe”, being prepared by the Committee on Political Affairs and Democracy, in particular by

- interacting with the High-Level Reflection Group and providing the Assembly’s input into the reflection;
- contributing to the preparation of the 4th Summit, in particular as regards its agenda and possible deliverables;

As and when appropriate, the ad hoc Committee will ensure the Assembly’s representation at the 4th Summit of Heads of State and Government of the Council of Europe.

2. Composition

In an inclusive approach, the ad hoc Committee will be composed of:

- the President of the Assembly;
- Presidents of all Assembly’s Political Groups or, in their absence their representative for the group concerned;
- the Chairpersons of the Assembly’s general committees listed in Rule 44.1 of the Rules of Procedure or, in their absence a vice-chairperson for the committee concerned;

- Chairpersons of the delegations holding the current and the immediate next Presidency of the Committee of Ministers (Ireland and Iceland);
- the Rapporteur of the Committee on Political Affairs and Democracy on “A fourth Summit for a renewed, improved and reinforced Council of Europe”.

3. Timetable

The ad hoc Committee is expected to report back to the Bureau during the October 2022 part-session of the Assembly, but its timetable will be regularly reviewed and adjusted, as necessary.
