Children’s rights campaigns in the Parliamentary Assembly

18 November: European Day on the Protection of Children against Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse

Sexual exploitation and sexual abuse of children can happen anywhere. It can be inflicted by someone in the child’s circle of trust or even a complete stranger and can cause lifelong damage to the child’s physical and mental health. To prevent these crimes, the Council of Europe’s Committee of Ministers adopted the pioneering Lanzarote Convention – a unique legally-binding instrument that obliges Parties to criminalise all forms of sexual abuse of children and spells out the ways to fight it. In 2015, the Council of Europe decided to set up the first European Day on the Protection of Children against Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse. Its objectives are to raise public awareness, open discussion and support the ratification and implementation of the Lanzarote Convention. Every year, the Assembly marks 18 November by holding parliamentary debates and events.

In 2017, the Council of Europe launched its “Start to talk” call for action to stop child sexual abuse in sport. By joining this call, governments, sport clubs, associations and federations, as well as athletes and coaches, pledge to take concrete measures to prevent and respond to abuse. The “Start to talk” initiative is about adults breaking the silence and lending children a voice. The Assembly supports this campaign through parliamentary activities.

The Parliamentary Campaign to End Immigration Detention of Children (2015-2019), has worked to raise awareness of this issue in Europe and to encourage States to adopt alternatives to detention that fulfil the best interests of the child and allow children to remain with their family members and/or guardians in non-custodial, community-based contexts while their immigration status is being resolved. Due to the dramatic increase in the number of cases of children confined in detention facilities for migrants in recent years, the Council of Europe decided (in January 2015) to join the Global Campaign to End Immigration Detention of Children – launched during the 19th Session of the UN Human Rights Council in 2012.

The Council of Europe ONE in FIVE Campaign to fight sexual violence against children was in place from 2010-2016. The association of national parliamentarians with this Campaign to stop sexual violence against children was very successful in promoting the signature, ratification and implementation of the Council of Europe Convention on the Protection of Children against Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse (the Lanzarote Convention). To date, this Convention has been ratified by 45 Council of Europe member States, with the remaining two being signatories to the Convention.

The Council of Europe has its permanent headquarters in Strasbourg, France. By statute, it has two constituent organs: The Committee of Ministers, composed of the ministers of foreign affairs of the member states, and the Parliamentary Assembly (PACE), comprising delegations for the 47 national parliaments.

The 648 women and men who make up the Council of Europe Parliamentary Assembly (http://assembly.coe.int) come together four times a year to debate topical issues and common challenges, to request action from Europe’s governments, and to hold those governments accountable for their acts. They speak on behalf of 830 million Europeans whom they represent on any subject they choose, and Europe’s governments – represented in the Council of Europe by the Committee of Ministers – are obliged to reply to them. They are greater Europe’s democratic conscience.
