PACE Bureau declares 'no confidence' in Pedro Agramunt as President

28 April 2017 - The Bureau of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (PACE), meeting in Strasbourg today, resolved that it has no confidence in Pedro Agramunt as President of the Assembly.

It further resolved that Mr Agramunt is not authorised to undertake any official visits, attend any meetings or make any public statements on behalf of the Assembly in his capacity as President.

"The President chose not to attend the Bureau today, and has not presented a letter of resignation. As a result, and in the context of the current Rules of Procedure under which the President cannot be compelled to resign, the Bureau felt it necessary to take these steps," said Sir Roger Gale (United Kingdom, EC), Senior Vice-President of the Assembly, after chairing the Bureau meeting.

"The standards and principles of the Parliamentary Assembly are more important than any individual member, and the integrity of our Assembly must be upheld," he added.

* The Bureau is responsible for the co-ordination of the activities of the Assembly and of its committees. It assists the President in his or her functions and guides the Assembly's external relations. It takes decisions on the organisation of part-sessions and plenary sittings. It consists of the President, the twenty Vice-Presidents of the Assembly, the heads of the political groups and the chairpersons of the Assembly's general committees.

Follow-up to the current affairs debate and to texts adopted during the second part-session of 2017 (Strasbourg, 24-28 April)

Current affairs debate on *European values under threat: addressing rising xenophobia, antisemitism and islamophobia in Europe: decided to refer the matter to the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination for consultation on the follow-up to be given.

Resolution 2162 (2017) on *Alarming developments in Hungary: draft NGO law restricting civil society and possible closure of the European Central University (Mr Mogens Jensen (Denmark, SOC), Rapporteur of the Committee on Political Affairs and Democracy)

11. In conclusion, the Assembly believes that recent developments in Hungary merit its close attention as well as the mobilisation of Council of Europe expertise to help the Hungarian authorities ensure compliance with relevant Council of Europe and international standards in the field of freedom of association and expression. The Assembly therefore:

11.1. requests the opinion of the Venice Commission on the compatibility with Council of Europe standards of the Hungarian draft law on the Transparency of Organisations Receiving Foreign Funding, as well as of the Act of 4 April 2017 amending the National Higher Education Act;

Follow-up: to request the Opinion of the Venice Commission as requested in paragraph 11.1.

12. The Assembly resolves to continue to follow closely developments in Hungary.

Follow-up: to be taken into account in the preparation of the report on Hungary in the context of the periodic review by the Monitoring Committee.
